

Programme Outcomes of MA Japanese

On successful completion of the MA in Japanese programme, the students will:

1. Be acquainted with the principles of teaching methodology.
2. Understand the basic principles of research methodology and structure of a research report.
3. Learn various stages of a research.
4. Learn how to write a research report for a chosen topic.
5. Learn concepts and terminologies of the Japanese language in a business context, as well as the working style of major Japanese companies.
6. Get acquainted with Japanese history and its important eras.
7. Learn about Japanese literature and read the writings of famous Japanese authors and poets written in Japanese.
8. Learn how to translate texts written in Japanese into English and vice versa.
9. Become familiar with different interpretation methods and practice interpreting using those methods.
10. Be familiar with the basics of English and Japanese linguistics.

Course Name: Research Methodology II (MAJ-202)

Course outcome:

1. Students will learn about the style and structure of a research report.
2. Students will get acquainted with writing various parts of a research report.
3. Students will be able to write a research plan on a topic.

Assignments:

1. Assignment 1: Write a note on ‘correct structure of a research report.’
2. Assignment 2: Explain in detail ‘Importance of good literature review while conducting research’.
3. Assignment 3: Choose a topic of your choice and write a simple research plan.

	PO1	PO2	PO3	PO4	PO5
CO1	0%	100%	0%	0%	0%
CO2	0%	100%	0%	0%	0%
CO3	0%	0%	0%	100%	0%

Assignments	Outcome	Objectives Achieved				Not Achieved
		O	A	B	C
1	CO1	0%	66%	34%	0%	0%
2	CO2	34%	66%	0%	0%	0%
3	CO2	34%	66%	0%	0%	0%